Opening Reception of Scott Abel and his Digital Fine Art

Do you know you're invited to join four 0 six for the opening reception of Scott Abel's art on August 16th at 6:00 pm? Cocktail hour is from 6-8 pm. Abel's art will be up until mid-September and will be available for viewing & purchase, including four hundred & six numbered editions of the "Four 0 six" special edition piece.

"My digital fine art is meant to invoke thinking through the visual sense. The images visually represent a synthesis through the layering of various objects, textures, colors and photography. Each piece embraces the viewer and stirs their minds emotionally, imaginatively and psychologically." - Scott Abel

The Bullwhacker Block - North Walking Mall

Alive @ Five August 20th

Do you know that the hard-rocking Irish band, the Young Dubliners owe everything to their fans? "They keep us honest, expecting good music both on the road and on the albums," mentions frontman Keith Roberts.

Building a fervent fan base comparable to that of jam band rockers like Phish and Dave Matthews Band, The Young Dubliners have become notorious for the whirling "jig pits" that erupt at their live shows.
